Budget Narrative

Town of Frederick, Police Department, Recovery Act – Justice Assistance Grants – Localities

The police department of the Town of Frederick needs a validated police officer physical fitness test. The test is intended to screen job applicants for those persons that can demonstrate by means of the test that they can perform the essential functions of the job. The test will also be used annually for in-service police officers to determine that they maintain the abilities to perform the essential functions of the job. The job of police officer requires several essential physical abilities. An officer lacking any of the abilities to perform essential job functions is a liability to him or her self, fellow officers, and to the public. A validated physical fitness test is expected to meet all requirements of the law and to be able to withstand court challenge.
